

WELCOME TO THE APPLE FAMILY!

Congratulations! You have purchased one of the finest computer systems in the world. We hope that it will expand your horizons and serve you well for years to come.

Your Apple computer can grow with your needs, and many companies produce software and accessories that enhance its capabilities. Apple on Apples, our bi-monthly user newsletter, will let you know about new products from Apple, and provide other information to help you get the most from your computer investment.

We would like to send you two free issues of Apple on Apples, but we have to know about you first. That's where this response card comes in. It puts you on our customer mailing list. RIGHT NOW, while you're thinking about it, won't you please take a moment to fill it out and mail it? You'll be glad you did.
